

If your relocating employee has school aged children, the choice of school is critical to all family decisions and will influence the whole family's perception of their new location. Getting the schooling right will expedite the relocation process and positively impact your relocating employee's performance in the workplace.

Capital Relocations provides a professional school search program which takes in to account existing and future education plans. Capital also caters for specialist education requirements such as special needs schooling. Capital always uses school search professionals with detailed knowledge and experience of the local schooling systems.

School Search: What is Included

- Detailed school search needs analysis
- Set up interviews with schools
- Assist with registration
- School search comparisons

School Search: Benefits

- Independent advice by education professionals
- School search delivered by school search professionals with expert local knowledge and education experience
- Local intelligence and ongoing consultation to benefit your policy