

Whether it is a short-term relocation or a long-term assignment, temporary housing is typically used to accommodate the relocating employee and any accompanying family prior to moving in to permanent housing becoming available.

Capital Relocations offers a range of temporary housing options to suit any short term living requirement, including; serviced apartments and short term lets. Our relocation professionals help by advising on the most suitable temporary housing option for your relocating employees based on their particular circumstance.

Capital Relocations will provide hands-on assistance in arranging temporary housing in the home and/or host location consistent with your temporary housing policy guidelines.

Capital Relocations has negotiated competitive rates with a variety of serviced accommodation providers in optimal locations. Capital Relocations has carefully vetted, and continues to monitor each serviced apartment facility to ensure exceptional standards of accommodation and service are maintained.

Capital Relocations aims to provide a varied range of flexible temporary accommodation solutions, tailoring this service to meet clients' individual requirements for coordinating bookings, arranging transport (such as airport collections) and negotiating, extending and terminating leases.

Our aim is to provide the best balance of cost effective and flexible temporary housing.

Temporary Housing : What is Included

- Sourcing temporary housing based on relocating employee's criteria
- Booking of temporary housing

Short term lets

- Arrangement of temporary housing viewings
- Lease negotiation and review
- Inventory check in
- Inventory check out

Temporary Housing : Benefits

- Compliance to your policy on the number of eligible days
- Fast and flexible solution
- Reduces costly hotel related expenses